Department of Languages

The Languages' Department started its activities for the Academic Year 2017-18 with a talk cum demo on "Kirtan Patampara", a form of traditional devotional recitation, on 03 July 2017. Dr. Vijaya Dopeshwarkar (retired Professor of Marathi, Lingraj College, Belagavi) was the Resource Person. The talk cum demo was well attended and received much appreciation.

Soon afterwards the Department organised a Special Lecture on the occasion of "Munshi Premchand Jayanti" on 02 August 2017. Dr. Amit Chingale of the Department of Hindi, B.K. College, Belagavi, was the Guest Speaker and he spoke on "Munshi Premchand and his Rastriya Chetana".

The English Faculty of GSS P-U College conducted a workshop on "Solving Question Paper". This event was specially arranged for the benefit of 2nd Year Pre-University students. The workshop was held on 19 December 2017. Prof. Rebecca Salvi of Government P-U College, Khanapur, was the Resource Person. The workshop received overwhelming response with over 200 students participating in it.

The year under report also saw the departure of Dr. C. B. Joshi (Sanskrita), who retired from service at the end of July 2017 on reaching superannuation. Dr. Joshi (fondly called Pandit) was a well-known figure among the faculty as he carried the banner of Sanskrita language in the college for over three decades. Incidentally, ours is one of the very few colleges in Rani Channamma University area that offers Sanskrita as a paper. All of us will miss him and his sagacity very much. We wish Pandit Joshi an active retired life full of good health and cheer.

On behalf of the department I would like to express gratitude to the two Principals and all staff members for their encouragement and help in conducting the departmental activities. I thank SKE Society for its support.

Foundation Day of NSS was celebrated at Dhanane on 1st September 2017 by planting and distributing the saplings to the villagers. Mahatma Gandhi Jayanti was celebrated on 2nd October 2017. On 10th October 2017 a talk by Major Mirwas given who elaborated the importance of youth in National security. Prof Aruna Naik and Shri Keshori Kakade stressed on the internal security aspects of our nation.

Prof. A. K. Mense conducted one day workshop on "Life and Work of Mahatma Gandhi" on 12th October 2017. Many students took part in the workshop with enthusiasm.

After this Principal Prof. A. K. Mense retired and Dr. N. D. Hegde took the charge as the new principal of our college and guided as follows. On 12th Jan 2018 on Swami Vivekananda's birth anniversary was celebrated as Youth day. Our students took part in a "Brushstrokes-rally" which was organized from Sant Meera High school to create awareness among the people by Ekal Abhivan, on 14th Jan 2018 on 16th Jan 2018 a one day training programme on AIDS and HIV awareness was organized by Karnataka government's "KARNATAKA AIDS SOCIETY AND BAPCO INSTITUTION" at Benom Smith college campus along with NSS cell of RCU. We gathered lot of information through their talks and films they showed us. A documentary on how it spreads and how it does not was a eye opener along with a movie.

An Essay competition was conducted for the students. The topic was "Role of youth Voters in nation building" and "Aids and its awareness" as per the direction of regional joint directors office. Winners were encouraged by giving the prizes sponsored by Shri Aray Ajoankar.

Annual special camp was held at Dhanane village from 27-01-2018 to 03-02-2018. Many activities like Shramadan, free medical checkup camp, free medicine and eye glasses, socioeconomics survey of the village, literacy programmes like teaching around 500 villagers to do their signature, group discussions, street plays, Rally on awareness and literacy and competitions for small children in games, drawing, singing and dancing were conducted during those seven days. Burning topics were delivered by eminent resource persons and the camp was completed successfully.

Our NSS volunteer Mr Siddagouda Hanamagoudar was selected for the National youth festival held at Noida (Uttara Pradesh) which was from 18th Jan 2018 to 25th Jan 2018 and won many prizes. Mr. Shyprasad Belikeri was selected as the Best Volunteer of the year 2017-2018. Another volunteer Miss Kiran Patil also got selected for the National Integration Camp held at Gulbarga.

We also celebrated Women's Day on 8th March in a grand scale. At the end of the academic year we conducted the activities of the unit by a valedictory function on -3-2018.

Thus the NSS unit worked hard and I feel proud to say that it was a greatest success story this year. The guidance and Co-operation given by the principals Prof. A. K. Mense and Dr. N. D. Hegde are worth mentioning. I am highly thankful to the members of managements for their presence in the camp and co-operation. I also thank or account superintendent Shri Arun Samant and office staff Shri Balappa Shindur and Smt Shilpa Malagund for their help to write the account and report. Dr. S. O. Halasagi gave us the financial help throughout the year and encouraged us for this I am highly obliged to RCU NSS cell and other people who have helped us in carrying out the NSS activity successfully throughout the year.

Department of Languages

Formal activities of the Languages Department started with the celebration of Munshebrenchand Jayanti on 31 July 2018. Munshebrenchand is the doyen of the modern Indian Novel and was one of the first Indian litterateurs who highlighted the plight of the under-privileged and the oppressed. Shri Kishore Kakade, retired Hindi Officer, was the Chief Guest of the event. In his talk he spoke of Premchand's novels and short stories, which have played a significant role in defining modern Indian social and cultural sensibility. The guest also listed Premchand's novels and stories that have been made into very popular films in many Indian languages.

The Department also held an exhibition on "Hindi Sahitya" in association with the College Library as part of Hindi Diwas activities. The expo was held between 12 and 18 September 2018 and was visited by a large number of students and teachers.

A Special Talk on "Careers in Translation" was arranged by the Department on 29 January 2019 for Semester 2 students. Prof. Varsha Kulkarni, Department of Marathi of Gogte PU College of Commerce and Science, was the Resource Person. She detailed how students can develop skills in Translation and make a career out of it.

On the occasion of "Jagatik Marathi Bhasha Diwas" on 11 March 2019 a programme, "Samridhi Marathi", was organized to showcase various forms of Marathi literary and cultural heritage. Activities like Abhangraavan, Natyavachan, Kavyavachan, Kathakathan and related video presentations were conducted. The programme received much appreciation from students and staff.

In addition to these the Department also arranged screening of films and informal seminars to encourage greater student interest in developing their language skills. The Department is thankful to the Principal for his guidance and support. The Department expresses grateful thanks to SKE Society for its encouragement and staff members and students for their active help.
